

I have had relatively few "sales" calls since registering for the do not call list. Please do not weaken this important service to the community.